

jeudi 2 novembre 2017

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
09:45 - 10:15	Discours d'ouverture (Amphithéâtre D Bâtiment F NANTERRE)
10:15 - 10:30	Pause café (F141 Salle des actes NANTERRE)
10:30 - 12:30	Droit du travail en contexte colonial (F517 NANTERRE) - Anne-Sophie Bruno, Eric Geerkens et Jean-Pierre Le Crom
10:30 - 10:50	› Une citoyenneté sociale sous contrainte. L'introduction du régime salarial en Afrique équatoriale française (années 1900-1940). - Ferruccio Ricciardi, CNRS
10:50 - 11:10	› Quel droit du travail applicable aux européens dans les colonies françaises ? - Katia Barragan, Université de Nantes
11:10 - 11:30	› Le pécule dans les colonies : une innovation du droit social surgie du passé - Dominique TAURISSON-MOURET, Université de Montpellier
11:50 - 12:10	› La lente et timide émergence de conventions collectives de travail au Congo belge (1945-1960) : une expérience unique et éphémère dans le contexte des territoires d'Empire. - Pierre Tilly, Université Catholique de Louvain
12:10 - 12:30	› Le droit syndical au Maroc au temps du protectorat. - Dominique Blonz Colombo, Université de Nantes
10:30 - 12:30	Ecrits d'ouvriers (F303 NANTERRE)
10:30 - 11:15	› 'Toil, brothers, toil, sing and toil': the world of work and the emancipation of labour in early Chartist Poetry - Mike Sanders, University of Manchester
11:15 - 12:00	› Décrire la mine : trois régimes de représentation ouvrière du monde minier à Anzin à la fin du XIXe siècle - Samuel Hayat, CNRS/CERAPS
10:30 - 12:30	Autorité et régulation du travail dans le champ de la construction (XIII-XIX siècle) (F113 NANTERRE)
10:30 - 11:00	› Le rôle des maîtres des œuvres dans le lancement, le déroulement et le paiement des travaux de construction (XIVe-XVe siècle). - Philippe Lardin, Université de Rouen
11:00 - 11:30	› Les rapports de travail dans les chantiers royaux portugais au XVe – début XVIe siècle - Arnaldo Sousa Melo, Universidade do Minho
11:30 - 12:00	› Les règlements de Mostassafaria : régler le marché pour régler le travail ? - Sandrine Victor, Institut National Universitaire Champollion, Albi
12:00 - 12:30	› Restaurer les monuments historiques à Liège entre 1830 et 1880 : acteurs et autorités publics. - Antoine Baudry, Université de Liège
10:30 - 12:30	Temps de travail (F106 NANTERRE)
10:35 - 11:00	› What Were Working Hours and Why Do We Want to Know About Them? - Lex Heerma van Voss, Huygens ING
11:00 - 11:25	› Does Time Matter in Preindustrial Work - Corine Maitte, UPEM - Didier TERRIER, Université de Valenciennes et Hainaut-Cambrasis
11:25 - 11:50	› Real Income and Economic Growth in England, 1260–1850 - Jane Humphries, University of Oxford - Jacob Weisdorf, University of Southern Denmark
10:30 - 12:30	Travail libre et non libre (F216 NANTERRE)
10:30 - 10:50	› Spaces of Slave Labour in Late Medieval Venice - Juliane Schiel, Universität Zürich

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
10:50 - 11:10	› Historical Network Research as a productive approach to researching the social situation of trafficked people in the Holy Roman Empire? - Rebekka von Mallinckrodt, University of Bremen
11:10 - 11:30	› Control of the city's workers: Municipal Law and the free and unfree labour in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (1830-1838) - Paulo Cruz Terra, Universidade Federal Fluminense
11:30 - 11:50	› Clarifying 'unfreedom' and 'coercion': a contribution from socio-legal theory - Robert Knegt, University of Amsterdam
11:50 - 12:10	› Forced Labour as an International Issue during the Early Cold War Years - Luca Polese, University of Salerno
10:30 - 12:30	Histoire féministe du travail (F215 NANTERRE)
10:30 - 11:00	› The gendered and classed burden of participation in institutions of self-management in Yugoslav factories - Rory Archer, School of Slavonic and Eastern European Studies, UC London
11:00 - 11:30	› Foreign Domestic Servants Moving to Antwerp and Brussels between 1850 and 1910 - Thomas Verbruggen, Centre for Urban History, University of Antwerp
11:30 - 12:00	› Strategies of survival and coping daily life – women's work and livelihood in post-revolutionary Iran 1979-2014 - Sepideh Nekomanesh, Stockholm University
12:00 - 12:30	› Colonial labour laws in India and the culturing of industrial work at Madras Cotton mills - M V Shobhana Warriar, Kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi
10:30 - 13:30	Salaires, budgets familiaux et genre dans l'Europe contemporaine (F421 NANTERRE)
10:30 - 10:50	› Family income in Spain during the 1920s: gender and age distribution - Cristina Borderias, Universitat de Barcelona - Luisa Muñoz, Universidad de Santiago de Compostela
10:50 - 11:10	› Child work and family budgets in Barcelona calico factories: 1768-1800 - Martin Iturralde Valls, Universitat de Barcelona
11:10 - 11:30	› Not only male breadwinners: the contribution of sons', daughters' and wives' wages in the economic strategies of working class families during industrialization (Iruñea – Pamplona, Spain, 1840 – 1930 - Fernando Mendiola, Universidad Pública de Navarra /Nafarroako Unibertsitate Publikoa
11:30 - 11:50	› Family incomes in the Spanish mining, a first approach (1870-1930) - Ángel Pascual Martínez Soto, University of Murcia - José Joaquín García Gómez, University of Murcia - Miguel A. Pérez de Perceval, University of Murcia
11:50 - 12:10	› Family budgets during Spanish Autarchy. An example in an industrial textile city in Catalonia (Manresa, 1940-1950) - Lluís Virós, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona
12:10 - 12:30	› Vulnerable households and occupancy. Barcelona, late 18th century. - Montserrat Carbonell-Esteller, Departament d'Història Econòmica, Universitat de Barcelona
10:30 - 12:30	Factory History : An Integrated Approach (F111 NANTERRE)
10:30 - 11:00	› Narratives of labour: troubles and latent conflict in a Fiat plant - Elena Dinubila, Ph.D in Anthropology, Ethnology and Cultural Studies, University of Siena
11:00 - 11:30	› Labor conflicts at the Soviet concession enterprises in the 1920s and early 1930s - Irina Shilnikova, National Research University "Higher School of Economics" (Moscow), Faculty of Economic Sciences.
11:30 - 12:00	› Citizens on the Shop-floor: Class, Citizenship and National Identity in a Turkish State Factory - Görkem Akgöz, Re:Work Institut, Berlin
12:30 - 14:00	Déjeuner (Restaurant Universitaire Paris-Nanterre)
14:00 - 15:30	Droit du travail en contexte colonial (F517 NANTERRE) - Anne-Sophie Bruno, Eric Geerkens et Jean-Pierre Le Crom

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
14:00 - 14:20	› L'extension du droit social aux territoires mandatés : Syrie-Liban (1920-1941) : quelles perspectives ? - Stéphanie Couderc-Morandeau, Université de Nantes
14:20 - 14:40	› La tarification des corps accidentés dans les espaces coloniaux français et belge au XXe siècle - Anne-Sophie Bruno, Université Paris 1 - Eric Geerkens, Université de Liege
14:40 - 15:00	› L'application de la législation sociale dans l'Algérie colonisée : l'exemple des accidents du travail dans les mines (années 1930) - Annick Lacroix, ISP - ENS Cachan
15:00 - 15:20	› Les structures administratives du travail dans les protectorats tunisien et marocain. - Sandra Gerard-Loiseau, Université Lille 2
14:00 - 15:30	Travail et Empire (F111 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› Convict Builders of British Imperial dockyards - Katherine Roscoe, University of Leicester
14:20 - 14:40	› 'Gifted with Strength That Is Not Human': Using Indigenous Colonial Labour for Coaling - Steven Gray, University of Portsmouth
14:40 - 15:00	› The Men of the Victoria Bridge in British Canada, 1854-1859 - Anh-Dao Bui Tran, Sorbonne University (Paris IV)
15:00 - 15:20	› Race And Slavery As Determinants Of Female Labor Force Participation Rates, Cuba 1860-1907 - Pilar Pérez-Fuentes, University of Basque Country
14:00 - 15:30	Ecrits d'ouvriers (F303 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:40	› "Come with me (in imagination) through the factory doors": a Young Tailoress Writes the World of Work - Timothy Ashplant, Centre for Life-Writing Research, King's College London
14:40 - 15:20	› Le monde du travail dans les autobiographies communistes Ecriture, identité, pratiques militantes - Cecilia Bergaglio, Université des études de Gênes, Département de Science Politique
14:00 - 15:30	Autorité et régulation du travail dans le champ de la construction (XIII-XIX siècle) (F113 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:30	› Travail et travailleurs de la construction à Montpellier aux XVe et XVIe siècles. - Lucie Laumonier, University of Calgary
14:30 - 15:00	› Enjeux collectifs et individuels de la construction et de la commande d'orgue en Italie (1400-1550) - Hugo Perina, EHESS, Paris
15:00 - 15:30	› The building labourer in Dublin's Victorian age: Poor slaves or righteous crusaders? - Susan Galavan, University of Leuven
14:00 - 15:30	Temps de travail (F106 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› Why did Workers Fight for Shorter Hours? A Comparative Study of Changing Rationalities in the Late 19th and late 20th Century - Philip Reick, Hebrew University, Jerusalem
14:20 - 14:40	› Emotional Temporalities: Psychological Repertoires and British Holiday Legislation, 1871–1914 - Yaara Bengier Alaluf, Max Planck Institute for Human Development
14:40 - 15:00	› "Who Knows what Conti Shifts Mean..." Assessing Night and Shift Work in Germany in the Late 20th Century - Hannah Ahlheim, Zentrum für Zeithistorische Forschung
14:00 - 15:30	Education ouvrière (F421 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:30	› "Culture is a tool for developing an awareness of civil society, politics and class in the worker" - Popular instruction and education in Italy (1861-1915). - Elena Musiani, University of Bologna

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
14:30 - 15:00	› Educate to Help the Class, or Leave Them Behind? Motifs among the participants in the first classes at Brunnsvik Folk College, Sweden 1906-1920 - Jonas Söderqvist, Uppsala University
15:00 - 15:30	› The Cooperative Movement and the Education of Working Men and Women: Provision by a Local Society in Lincoln, England, 1861-1914 - Andrew J.H. Jackson, Bishop Grosseteste University
14:00 - 15:30	Travail libre et non libre (F216 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› Moments (or degress) of coercion of slaves and captives in the Papal States (1750-1850) - Giulia Bonazza, Max Weber Fellow, European University Institute
14:20 - 14:40	› The paradox of free and unfree labour in the burgeoning welfare state: forced labour instead of unemployment. Sweden 1920s-1960s - Yvonne Svanström, Stockholm University
14:40 - 15:00	› Controlling the labour force in pre-1959 Tibet - Jeannine Bischoff, University of Bonn
15:00 - 15:20	› To which extent under coercion? Convicts' and illegal migrants' labour in Spain (1975-2015) - Fernando Mendiola, Public University of Navarra
14:00 - 15:30	Histoire féministe du travail (F215 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› Defenselessness and disgreceful working conditions Mosaics from the unwritten histroy of women industrial workers in Hungary - Judit Acsády, HAS Centre for Social Sciences Institute for Sociology (Budapest)
14:20 - 14:40	› "There were some women workers whose hands were working even faster than the machines..." Between tradition and modernization; female labour in the Greek cigarette industry, 1920-1970 - Thanasis Betas, University of Thessaly, Greece
14:40 - 15:00	› Men diggers and women carriers': The labour division in public works in colonial North India - Jha Madhavi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi
15:00 - 15:20	› De-railing tradition: Exploring gendered workplace cultures in the rail and sea transport industries of Australia and Britain.' - Diane Kirkby, Melbourne University - Emm Robertson, LaTrobe University
14:00 - 15:30	Travail et économie familiale (F113b NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› The history of telecommuting in Europe: stressed out housewives, smart consultants and Big Tech at the dawn of the information society. - Mirko Winkelmann, Freie Universität Berlin
14:20 - 14:40	› To Earn a Living: Social Experiences of Female Work within Households. Buenos Aires City, 1850-1870 - Valeria Pita, CONICET-IIIEGE, University of Buenos Aires - Gabriela Mitidieri, CONICET-IIIEGE, University of Buenos Aires
14:40 - 15:00	› Talking kitchen motors and electric nurses. The Bat'a shoe company's ideas on housework and consumption (Czechoslovakia in the 1930s). - Theresa Adamski, University of Vienna
15:00 - 15:20	› The cork industry as domestic manufacture. Working at home for the market in Calonge (Catalonia) in 1881. - Margarita Lopez Anton, Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona
15:30 - 16:00	Pause café (F141 Salle des actes NANTERRE)
16:00 - 17:30	Travail et Empire (F111 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:20	› Imperial Labour and Social Mobility: How India Unmakes a British Working-Class - Alexandra Lindgren-Gibson, University of Mississippi
16:20 - 16:40	› Henry Winship's Scrapbook: Race and the Making of Railway Labour in Colonial India, 1853-1874 - Amanda Armstrong, University of Michigan

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
16:40 - 17:00	› The Threat of the 'Thin-Lipped Negro Hybrids' to Agriculture: Puerto Rico's Farm Labor Migration in the Context of Global Capitalism - Ismael Garcia Colon, College of Staten Island
17:00 - 17:20	› The Ministry of Labour and the North-African workers in the metropole from 1939 to the 1950's : managing recruitment, flows, job-placement and repatriation of colonial workers from French empire - Hugo Mulonnière, Université de Rouen
16:00 - 17:30	Ecrits d'ouvriers (F303 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:40	› « Traduire des silences » : itinéraires de recherche et travail d'écritures d'un « groupe d'ouvriers » dans les années 1970 (Bassin stéphanois, Loire). - Alban Graziotin, GREMMOS depuis 2007 (Groupe de Recherches et d'Etudes sur les Mémoires du Monde Ouvrier Stéphanois)
16:40 - 17:20	› Narrating the Strike: Harold Heslop and the Left Review - Christos Efsthathiou, University of Warwick
16:00 - 17:30	Autorité et régulation du travail dans le champ de la construction (XIII-XIX siècle) (F113 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Grant marchants and aennemers. The rise of the building contractor in the fifteenth century in the Low Countries. - Merlijn Hurx, Utrecht University
16:30 - 17:00	› Contribution à l'histoire des entrepreneurs : Guillaume de la Vergne, un exemple parisien à cheval entre le XVIIe et le XVIIIe siècle. - Léonore Losserand, Université Paris-Sorbonne
17:00 - 17:30	› Les paradoxes de l'interdiction du marchandage : pratique et contrats de sous-entreprise dans le marché de la construction au 19e siècle - Renaud Bueb, Université de Franche-Comté
16:00 - 17:30	Education ouvrière (F421 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Ideological Schooling and Images of the worker: comparing educational material from the German and the Swedish labor movement - Jenny Jansson, Department of Government, Uppsala University
16:30 - 17:00	› Preparing for the future: governance by educational films - Lina Rahm, Linköping University
17:00 - 17:30	› Educating workers during the "structural change". Trade Unions, "learning disabilities" and workers' subjectification in the vocational training system in the 1960s and 1970s. - Jan Kellershohn, Institute for Social Movements, Ruhr-University Bochum
16:00 - 17:30	Travail libre et non libre (F216 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 17:30	› Working group meeting - Juliane Schiel, Universität Zürich
16:00 - 17:30	Histoire féministe du travail (F215 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Revisiting the labour surplus theory: Ester Boserup and Gunnar Myrdal parting ways - Nina Trige Andersen, Society for Labour History, Denmark
16:30 - 17:00	› Revisiting 'Boserup Revisited': The International Labor Organization and the Construction of Social Knowledge on Rural Women in the Global South - Eileen Boris, University of California, Santa Barbara
17:00 - 17:30	› Women and Work on the Market Periphery: Plantations, Female Labor, and Economic Development in an Age of Dependency - Jill Jensen, University of Redlands, USA
16:00 - 17:30	Travail et économie familiale (F113b NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:15	› Sewing at home (Greece, 1870s -1930s) - Leda Papastefanaki, University of Ioannina
16:15 - 16:30	› Work, sewing and women's labor struggle in Argentina during the '30s - Cecilia Cross, CITRA-CONICET/UMET, University of Buenos Aires - Maria Ullivarri, CITRA-CONICET/UMET, University of Buenos Aires

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
16:30 - 16:45	› Tramping artisans and working at home: Journeymen confectioners in 19th century Europe - Maria Papathanasiou, University of Athens
16:45 - 17:00	› Homework as a coping strategy. Cottage industry and urban poverty in Helsinki, 1880-1950 - Leena Enbom, University of Helsinki
17:00 - 17:15	› “Should children help their parents with homework? Child labour amidst industrial homeworkers in England, 1870-1914” - Béatrice Robic, Université Paris IV
17:15 - 17:30	› How Domestic Were Home Workshops? Evidence from 19th-century France - Anaïs Albert, centre d'histoire du XIXe siècle - Claire Lemerrier, CNRS, Sciences Po, Paris
17:30 - 17:45	Pause café (F141 Salle des actes NANTERRE)
17:45 - 18:30	Récits d'ouvriers et histoire du travail (Amphithéâtre D Bâtiment F NANTERRE) - Arthur Mclvor

vendredi 3 novembre 2017

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
09:00 - 10:30	Religion et Manufactures. Les institutions de charité comme centres de travail (Moyen Âge-XIXe siècle) (F106 NANTERRE) - Andrea Caracausi, Corinne Maitte
09:05 - 09:30	› Le travail des enfants de la Charité entre encadrement religieux et exploitation économique : le cas de Lyon (XVII-XVIIIe siècles) - Monica Martinat, TRIANGLE UMR 5206
09:30 - 09:55	› Working towards a better future? Labour relations in Dutch orphanages and alms houses in the eighteenth century - Ruben Schalk, University of Utrecht
09:55 - 10:20	› Manufactures and Poor Confinement in Eighteenth-century Madrid - Jesus Agua de la Roza, University of Madrid
09:00 - 10:30	Travail et Empire (F111 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:30	› Le rôle des maîtres des œuvres dans le lancement, le déroulement et le paiement des travaux de construction (XIXe-XVe siècle) - Steven Parfitt, University of Nottingham
09:30 - 10:00	› The 1919 mutinies in the French Armed Forces: Colonialism, Ethnicity and the Remaking of the French left - Matt Perry, University of Newcastle
10:00 - 10:30	› Comradeship Over Britannia's Borders. The Colonial Networks of the Labour Party in the Interwar Period - Quentin Gasteuil, Sorbonne University / ENS Paris-Saclay
09:00 - 10:30	Histoire des relations internationales des syndicats européens de la métallurgie, depuis la crise des années 1970 (F421 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:29	› The Lisbon metal workers Union: From resistance to workers control (1970-1978) - Miguel Ángel Pérez Suárez, Instituto de História Contemporânea da Universidade Nova de Lisboa
09:30 - 10:00	› L'histoire de la Fédération du Métal des Comisiones Obreras : aux sources du syndicalisme démocratique en Espagne (1976-1995) - Juan Moreno, Fundación Primero de Mayo, Madrid
10:00 - 10:30	› Les fédérations de la métallurgie espagnoles dans le cas Renault-Vilvoorde 1997 - Sigfrido Ramirez Perez, Institut Max-Planck pour l'histoire du droit européen, Frankfurt
09:00 - 10:30	Droit du travail et relations professionnelles en Europe (XIXe-XXe siècles) (F517 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:20	› Laboratories of Labour Law in Early XXth Century: Observation, Comparison and International Solutions. - Virginia Amorosi, Università degli Studi di Napoli Federico II

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
09:20 - 09:40	› Les ouvriers, les patrons et les statistiques du Bureau international du travail : étude du rôle de la connaissance scientifique dans le dialogue social (1919-1939) - Laure Piguët, Université de Genève
09:40 - 10:00	› Droit et pratique de l'extension des conventions collectives en France et en Allemagne dans l'entre-deux-guerres - Laure MACHU, Institutions et dynamiques historiques de l'Économie et de la Société
10:00 - 10:20	› Circulation internationale des débats sur le corporatisme et institutionnalisation des relations collectives de travail dans les années 1930 : le cas du Luxembourg. - Adrien Thomas, LISER
09:00 - 10:30	Histoire féministe du travail (F215 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:30	› Considering the home/work continuum in the history of feminist economics: a genealogical approach - Maria Tamboukou, University of East London, UK
09:30 - 10:00	› Suffrage, gender and class. Intersectional reflections on women's suffrage and the construction and constraints of a lawful citizen in Iceland - Þorgerður Þorvaldsdóttir, The Reykjavik Academy - Ragnheiður Kristjánsdóttir, University of Iceland
10:00 - 09:30	› Léonie Chaptal and the nursing labour market in 19th - 20th century France - Corinne Belliard, Sorbonne Nouvelle
09:00 - 10:30	Histoire du travail militaire (F316 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:30	› Devshirmes and Unfree Labor System in the Ottoman Capital - Gulay Yilmaz, Akdeniz University
09:30 - 10:00	› Military labour in the Republic of Venice: militiamen, sappers and oarsmen between agency and coercion (XVI-XVII centuries) - Giulio Ongaro, University Bicocca, Milan
09:00 - 10:30	Deindustrial Landscapes: the (more-than) representations of industrial decline (F104 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:20	› Between rubble and ruin: explorations of (de) industrial landscapes - George Jaramillo, The Glasgow School of Art
09:20 - 09:40	› Industrial past as a contested border and a cultural borderland: the case of Upper Silesia - Juliane Tomann, Friedrich-Schiller-Universität in Jena - Imre Kertész Kolleg, Friedrich-Schiller-Universität in Jena
09:40 - 10:00	› There's bugger all left, except in wor hearts": Durham pit closures, landscape change and embedded memories - Pete Hodson, Queen's University Belfast, UK
10:00 - 10:20	› Percorsi di ricomposizione del paesaggio urbano a Sesto San Giovanni: il caso dell'ex area Breda - Dino Gavinelli, Università degli Studi di Milano - Giacomo Zanolin, Università degli Studi di Milano
09:00 - 10:30	Maritime Labour History (F113 NANTERRE)
09:00 - 09:20	› Seafarers in Rotterdam and Antwerp in Times of the "Migration Crisis" around 1900 - Christina Reimann, University of Gothenburg, Institutionen för Historiska Studier &amp; Centre for European Research - CERGU
09:20 - 09:40	› Extra-European seafarers employed by British imperial shipping companies during the interwar years (1919-1939): being in the wrong place at the wrong time? - Justine Cousin, Université Paris IV Sorbonne
09:40 - 10:00	› A time of transition: Foreign seamen on Belgian ships in the port of Antwerp, 1850-1914 - Kristot Loockx, Universiteit Antwerpen
10:00 - 10:20	› Framing the Portuguese Maritime Labour under a corporatist organization for fisheries: welfare and social order (1933-1974) - Álvaro Garrido, Faculdade de Economia da Universidade de Coimbra. Investigador do CEIS20
09:00 - 10:30	Workers, Labour and Labour History in Modern Central-East-Europe (F216 NANTERRE)

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
09:00 - 09:15	› Refining the Moldavian Peasant-Workers in the Soviet Borderlands (1920-1938) - Alexandru Lesanu, George Mason University
09:15 - 09:30	› “Emigration of the labour force from the Central and Eastern European region since the second half of the 19th century” - Susan Pasztor, Sapienza - University of Rome
09:30 - 09:45	› Labor, Social and Daily Life to the Workers from Gold Mining in Transylvania during the „Long Nineteenth Century” (1800-1914) - Iosif Marin Balog, "George Baritiu" Institute of History Cluj Romanian Academy
09:45 - 10:00	› Religious Life of the Industrial Working Class in East-Central Europe? - Jakub Štofanič, Masaryk Institute and Archives of the Czech Academy of Sciences
10:00 - 10:15	› Selected aspects of socialist everyday life of the labour in the Czechoslovak cinematography in the second half of the 20th century - Lucia Heldáková, Institute of Social Sciences, Centre of Social and Psychological Sciences, Slovak Academy of Sciences - Klara Kohoutová, Institute of Social Sciences, Centre of Social and Psychological Sciences, Slovak Academy of Sciences
10:30 - 11:00	Pause café (F141 Salle des actes NANTERRE)
11:00 - 12:30	Religion et Manufactures. Les institutions de charité comme centres de travail (Moyen Âge-XIXe siècle) (F106 NANTERRE) - Andrea Caracausi, Corinne Maitte
11:00 - 11:20	› Between Putting-out and Proto-Factories: Orphanages and Textile Industry in Early Modern Padua - Andrea Caracausi, Università di Padova
11:20 - 11:40	› The Casa Pia del Rifugio in Firenze, orphans at work - Corine Maitte, UPEM
12:00 - 12:20	› Textile production by Stockholm's Orphans, c. 1720-1750 - Lili-Annè Aldman, Uppsala Universitet - Lena Dahren, Uppsala Universitet
11:00 - 12:30	Santé et environnement au travail (XVIIIes-XXe siècles) (F317 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:20	› Les arts de pêche, un objet d'histoire environnementale du travail en mer (France-Angleterre, XVIIIe-XIXe siècles) - Romain Grancher, Centre de Recherches Historiques, EHESS
11:40 - 12:00	› Debt-driven Socioecological Transformations and Environmental History of Work: Swidden Agriculture and Tar Capitalism in 19th Century Finland - Tero Toivanen, University of Helsinki
12:00 - 12:20	› Beyond “Suburbs and Songbirds” : Putting Workers in the American Environmental Movement Origin Story - Chad Montrie, University of Massachusetts Lowell
11:00 - 12:30	Histoire des relations internationales des syndicats européens de la métallurgie, depuis la crise des années 1970 (F421 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:30	› The IG Metall and the organisation of Guest Workers: the role of Max Diamant - Antonio Muñoz Sánchez, Institute of Social Sciences, University of Lisbon
11:30 - 12:00	› Construire une action syndicale franco-italienne : les relations entre les fédérations de la métallurgie FGM FTM FIM FIOM - Claude Roccati, Université de Limoges
11:00 - 12:30	Droit du travail et relations professionnelles en Europe (XIXe-XXe siècles) (F517 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:20	› Le Comité des Houillères (1887-1940) et la législation sociale, pratiques et espaces de négociation - Philippe Aurélie, Sorbonne-Paris-Cité, Université Paris 13 Pléiade
11:21 - 11:40	› L'émergence de l'entreprise comme échelon de négociation au sein du système de relations professionnelles français (années 1950-1982) - Matthieu Tracol, Chercheur indépendant - professeur d'histoire-géographie
11:40 - 12:00	› Retour sur plus d'un siècle de pratiques syndicales du droit, France, 20 e -21 e siècles - Michel Pigenet, CHS XXe siècle, université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
12:00 - 12:20	› La CFDT, de « l'autogestion » à la négociation par le compromis ? Des traces laissées par les « élites » syndicales à la sociogenèse de la valorisation d'une ligne de conduite syndicale - Maiylis Gantois, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
11:00 - 12:30	Histoire féministe du travail (F215 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:15	› Women's experience in the labour dispute of flight attendants in 1979 - Roberta Corsi, Chercheuse indépendante
11:15 - 11:30	› Discriminations genrées, répression syndicale et résistances au travail: le cas des ouvrières d'une blanchisserie parisienne ( 1975- 1994) - Amandine Tabutaud, Université Paris Saclay
11:30 - 11:45	› What kind of possible sisterhood? Cooperative efforts and difficulties in the encounter between women unionists, radical feminists, and housewives (1970s Milan, Italy) - Anna Frisone, European University Institute
11:45 - 12:00	› The Female Staff in International PTT between Unionism and Feminism - Laura Savelli, Università di Pisa
12:00 - 12:15	› Women Workers, Everyday Life and Social Conflict in the Post-68 Factory: The Case of Moulinex - Jackie Clarke, University of Glasgow
12:15 - 12:30	› Women Workers' Education as an International Claim (1955-1968) Connections between Belgian, French and Swedish trade unionist women - Françoise Laot, Université de Reims
11:00 - 12:30	Histoire du travail militaire (F316 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:30	› Army/Nation, Labour/Service: the problem of universal conscription in the Nineteenth Century - Jacopo Lorenzini, Istituto Italiano per gli Studi Storici
11:30 - 12:00	› The Finnish fortification works 1940–1941 as an example of military labour - Otto Aura, University of Helsinki
11:00 - 12:30	Deindustrial Landscapes: the (more-than) representations of industrial decline (F104 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:20	› Lieux de mémoire of the Asturian Labour Movement - Amaia Caunedo, University of Oviedo - Irene Diaz, University of Oviedo - Rubén Vega, University of Oviedo
11:20 - 11:40	› Time capsules in post- industrial landscapes: A view on coal miner's collections in the Ruhr area - Stefan Siemer, Deutsches Bergbau-Museum Bochum
11:40 - 12:00	› What happened to you? Former industrial landscapes in the Hungarian capital - Melina Harlov-Csörtán, Eötvös Loránd University
12:00 - 12:20	› Issues political, social and economic of Italian deindustrialization between the twentieth and twenty-first century: the case of the de-industrialization of the mining industry in Sardinia. - Simone Cara, Università di Cagliari
11:00 - 12:30	Maritime Labour History (F113 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:30	› Seafaring Masculinity: The Gender of Maritime History in the Age of Trump - Valerie Burton, Memorial (University of Newfoundland, Canada)
11:30 - 12:00	› A Historical Overview of Decent Working Conditions on board. International Attempts for a "Decent Workplace" in Merchant Shipping - Despoina Kiltidou, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
12:00 - 12:30	› Transatlantic Crises: Fishermen's Wives' Organizations in Gloucester and Hull - Colin J. Davis, University of Alabama at Birmingham
11:00 - 12:30	Workers, Labour and Labour History in Modern Central-East-Europe (F216 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:15	› Soviet workers before and after the collapse of Soviet union - Natalia Koulinka, History of Consciousness Program, University of California, Santa Cruz

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
11:15 - 11:30	› Czech Social Photography between art, society and politics - Pavčina Vogelová, NATIONAL MUSEUM HISTORICAL MUSEUM – Modern Czech History
11:30 - 11:45	› Changing Position of The May Day Celebration in Perspective of Establishment and Elites (Case of Coal Mining Regions in the Czech Lands and Upper Silesia, 1890–1989) - Agata Kravčíková, University of Ostrava
11:45 - 12:00	› Working class and urban question in the Kingdom of Poland at the turn of the 20th century: European contexts and local conditions - Kamil Śmiechowski, University of Łódź, Poland Institute of History
12:00 - 12:15	› Changes in the everyday life and the political power – labour relations in the interwar period in the Jiu/Zsil Valley coal industry - Robert Miklos Nagy, Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca (Kolozsvar), Faculty of History and Philosophy, Department of History in Hungarian Language
11:00 - 12:30	Travail et Empire (F111 NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:20	› Moored Mobilities of Coal and Labor: Natural Resources, Employment, and International Politics in Fushun Coalmine, 1905-1955 - Limin Teh, Leiden University, Germany
11:20 - 11:40	› Negotiating Empires: British Imperial Subjects and the New American Empire in Panama, 1904-1920 - Julie Greene, University of Maryland, USA
11:40 - 12:00	› Analogous conditions, contentious definitions: The internationalization of the colonial 'native' labour in the interwar period - Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo, Universidade de Coimbra
12:00 - 12:20	› Local Struggles, Global Impacts: The Emergence and Diffusion of Industrial Dispute Tribunals across British Colonies - Zophia Edwards, Providence College
11:00 - 12:30	Apprentissage, travail et création dans l'Europe moderne (F113b NANTERRE)
11:00 - 11:21	› Présentation du Projet ANR/FNS : GAWS : Garzoni. Apprenticeship, Work, Society in Early Modern Venice - Maud Ehrman, EPFL (Lausanne) - Anna Bellavitis, U.Rouen-Normandie-GRHis/IUF - Frédéric Kaplan, EPFL (Lausanne) - Valentina Sapienza, U.Lille3-IRHIS
11:20 - 11:40	› Apprentissages et langage professionnels du métier de barcarolo à Venise à l'époque moderne (XVIe-XVIIe siècles) - Robin Quillien, EHESS-CRH
11:40 - 12:00	› Rural Artisan Apprenticeship without Guilds in the Early-Modern Finland - Merja Uotila, University of Jyväskylä
12:00 - 12:20	› The apprenticeship in bread production in Barcelona - Mercè Renom, Universitat de Barcelona/ TIG
12:30 - 14:00	Déjeuner (Restaurant Universitaire Paris-Nanterre)
14:00 - 15:30	Religion et Manufactures. Les institutions de charité comme centres de travail (Moyen Âge-XIXe siècle) (F106 NANTERRE) - Andrea Caracausi, Corinne Maitte
14:00 - 14:20	› Sending beggars and vagrants to work. The manufactures within the "Ospedali dei mendicanti" of Genoa and Bologna in The First Half of the 18th Century. - Francesca Ferrando, Università di Verona
14:20 - 14:40	› Travailler à l'Hospice : exploitation ou apprentissage? La Maison de Miséricorde de Gérone au XVIIIe siècle. - Céline Xicola Mutos, Université de Gérone
14:40 - 15:00	› A mix of charity and profit: factories, entrepreneurs and charity institutions in preindustrial Piedmont (17th-19th centuries). - Beatrice Zucca-Micheletto, Université de Rouen
15:00 - 15:20	› Charity and Work of Women in France, from the Old Regime to the end of the XIX th century - Isabelle Brian, Université de Lorraine
14:00 - 15:30	Ecrits d'ouvriers (F303 NANTERRE)

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
14:00 - 14:40	› Militant cinema, social memories and narratives on work - Luisa Veloso, Instituto Universitário de Lisboa - Frederic Vidal, Instituto Universitário de Lisboa
14:40 - 15:20	› Genèses d'archives militantes : premières hypothèses sur des pratiques photographiques amateurs en milieu ouvrier - Xavier Nerrière, Centre d'histoire du travail de Nantes / Centre nantais de sociologie, UMR 6025 - Annie Colovald, Centre d'histoire du travail de Nantes / Centre nantais de sociologie, UMR 6025
14:00 - 15:30	L'évolution des modes de rémunération sur la longue durée (F517 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:30	› Some critical reflections on modern wage theories, from Keynes to Piketty - Christos Efsthathiou, University of Warwick
14:30 - 15:00	› Evolution of remuneration modes and socialized wages in Russian industries in the first half of the 20th century: concepts and descriptions - Leonid Borodkin, Lomonosov Moscow State University
15:00 - 15:30	› Who Creates Value in Socialism? Contesting Wage Distribution inside Yugoslav Self-Managed Factories - Goran Musić, University of Graz, Centre for Southeast European Studies
14:00 - 15:30	Apprentissage, travail et création dans l'Europe moderne (F113b NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› Apprenticeship from the master's perspective - Patrick Wallis, London School of Economics
14:20 - 14:40	› Her freedom by service': women and apprenticeship in early modern London - Claire Benson, University of York
14:40 - 15:00	› The training of clerks in early modern London - Jennifer Bishop, Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge
15:00 - 15:20	› 'A Lyon Lurketh in the Way' : The Apprentices of London, the Caroline Public Sphere, and the Emergence of a Political Force - Drew Heverin, University of Kentucky
14:00 - 15:30	Santé et environnement au travail (XVIIIes-XXe siècles) (F317 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:20	› Public health or worker health. The Ministry of Interior and the unhealthy industries regulation in the liberal Italy (1895-1925) - Roberto Cea, State University of Milan
14:20 - 14:40	› The 'infernal underside of the restaurant industry' : Parisian cooks and occupational health in the 1920s - Martin Bruegel, INRA – Centre Maurice Halbwachs
14:40 - 15:00	› La jeunesse ouvrière chrétienne (JOC) et la protection des jeunes travailleurs en Belgique durant l'Entre-deux-guerres - Florence Loriaux, Centre d'animation et de recherche en histoire ouvrière et populaire - CARHOP
14:00 - 15:30	Histoire des relations internationales des syndicats européens de la métallurgie, depuis la crise des années 1970 (F421 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:30	› Glocal Tensions: The European Metalworkers during the Shipbuilding Crisis in the 1970s - Johanna Wolf, Global and European Studies Institute, University of Leipzig
14:30 - 15:00	› Le comité consultatif de la CECA et la crise de la sidérurgie européenne (1974-1988) - Dimitri Zurstrassen, Paris IV-Sorbonne
15:00 - 15:30	› « L'anticipation sociale des restructurations, l'œuvre pionnière de la fédération européenne des métallurgistes (années 1980-1990) » - Pierre Tilly, UCL-Louvain - Quentin Jouan, UCL-Louvain
14:00 - 15:30	Deindustrial Landscapes: the (more-than) representations of industrial decline (F104 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:45	› WORKING GROUP KEYNOTE - Ruben Vega Garcia, Universida de Oviedo
14:00 - 15:30	Maritime Labour History (F113 NANTERRE)

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
14:00 - 14:30	› The Maritime Porters of Barcelona in the crises of the first-quarter of the nineteenth century: work cultures and family networks in the reconstruction of the labor force.* - Brendan J. von Briesen, Universitat de Barcelona
14:30 - 15:00	› View from Below : New Perspectives on the History of the Thessalonikian Dockers in the Port of Haifa (1933-1935). - Shaï Srougo, University of Haifa
15:00 - 15:30	› The contracting system at the Port of Thessaloniki during the Post-War era - Kostas Paloukis, Research Associate of the Thessaloniki Port Authority S.A - Christos Mais, Research Associate of the Thessaloniki Port Authority S.A
14:00 - 15:30	Workers, Labour and Labour History in Modern Central-East-Europe (F216 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:15	› Between Classes. The Concept of Commuters in the Communist Ideology and in the Political Discourse through the Case of the Hungarian People's Republic - Zsófia Kisórsi, HAS_ELTE
14:15 - 14:30	› The Work-Centered Life and the Militant Self. An Infra-class Comparison of the Working Class Political Memoirs of the Late Russian Poland - Wiktor Marzec, Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, CEU
14:30 - 14:45	› Women industrial workers in Hungary. Overview of data and aspects for comparative analysis - Judit Acsády, HAS Centre for Social Sciences Institute for Sociology (Budapest)
14:45 - 15:00	› The apostles Fordism and consumption: The corporate ethos, value orientation and family lives of employees of the Baťa footwear concern in the first half of the 20th century - Martin Jemelka, Masaryk Institute and Archives of the Czech Academy of Sciences
15:00 - 15:15	› Typographers: Pioneers of socialism or labor aristocracy? Public activities of book printers' and typesetters' in Prague and Vienna in the years 1848-1873 - Jakub Raška, the Institute of Economic and Social History, Faculty of Arts, Charles University, Prague
14:00 - 15:30	Travail et Empire (F111 NANTERRE)
14:00 - 14:30	› British Imperialism and Anti-colonial Activism in India: Tales from across the Borders - Ravi Kant Tripathi, Université Paris 13
14:30 - 15:00	› Labour and imperial security networks during the Meerut trial, 1919-33 - Nick Owen, University of Oxford
15:30 - 16:00	Pause café (F141 Salle des actes NANTERRE)
16:00 - 17:30	Religion et Manufactures. Les institutions de charité comme centres de travail (Moyen Âge-XIXe siècle) (F106 NANTERRE) - Andrea Caracausi, Corinne Maitte
16:00 - 16:20	› La congrégation des Soeurs du Bon Pasteur - Isabelle Cavé, EHESS
16:20 - 16:40	› Chrétiens excellents, bons citoyens, vaillants ouvriers". L'« Asile des petits orphelins et petits artisans Florentins" 1899 –1950 - Anna Pellegrino, Università di Bologna
16:00 - 17:30	L'évolution des modes de rémunération sur la longue durée (F517 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:20	› Ways of remuneration of work in viticola Catalonia (18th and 19th centuries) - Llorenç Ferrer-Alos, (Universitat de Barcelona, Grup Treball Institucions i Gènere)
16:20 - 16:40	› La structure des rémunérations dans les filatures au XIXe siècle. L'apport des registres comptables dans le coton et le jute - Mohamed Kasdi, Professeur des collèges en histoire-géographie - Didier Terrier, professeur émérite, université de Valenciennes
16:40 - 17:10	› Nomenclature and working division in the Spanish mining: 19th century and mid-20th century - José Joaquín García Gómez, Universidad de Almería - Ángel Pascual Martínez Soto, Universidad de Murcia - Pérez de Perceval Miguel, Universidad de Murcia
17:10 - 17:30	› Omnia mutantur, nihil interit: how hated remuneration systems were saved from social struggles by lexical changes. A case study from Peñarroya mines in Italy (1930-1940) - Francesca Sanna, Phd student in History, Université Paris Diderot Paris 7, ED 382, Lab. LIED

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
16:00 - 17:30	Apprentissage, travail et création dans l'Europe moderne (F113b NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:20	› Forms of guild and non-guild training in early-modern Madrid - José Antolin Nieto Sánchez, Universidad Autonoma de Madrid
16:20 - 16:40	› Female Enskilment: York's Labouring Women in Eighteenth-Century Guilds. - Amy Creighton, University of York
16:40 - 17:00	› L'apprentissage à Rouen au cours de l'époque moderne - Alexandra Amiot, Université de Rouen Normandie
17:00 - 17:20	› Apprenticeship as a requirement to maintain and improve technical knowledge. Barcelona 1760-1840 - Àngels Solà, Université de Barcelone
16:00 - 17:30	Santé et environnement au travail (XVIIIes-XXe siècles) (F317 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:20	› Mobilising around the body: Workers, trade unions and occupational health in Britain during the Second World War and its aftermath, 1939-1951 - Arthur McIvor, (University of Strathclyde - Scottish Oral History Centre
16:20 - 16:40	› La santé du travailleur verrier français à la Belle Epoque. Une mise au point nécessaire. - Stéphane Palaude, AMAVERRE
16:00 - 17:30	Histoire du travail militaire (F316 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Women in the Alpujarras War (Granada, Spain, 1568-1571) - Aurelia Martín Casares, University of Granada, Spain &amp; Marie Christine Delaigue University of Granada
16:30 - 17:00	› Bringing military work home: domestic labour and power in occupied Germany and Japan - Christine de Matos, The University of Notre Dame, Australia.
17:00 - 17:30	› 'You in the air surveillance tower, he behind the plow': the recruitment of women for military labour in WWII Sweden - Fia Sundevall, the Swedish Labour Movement Archive and Library, &amp; Stockholm University, Sweden
16:00 - 17:30	Deindustrial Landscapes: the (more-than) representations of industrial decline (F104 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:19	› Venetian Industrial Landscapes: Porto Marghera - Gilda Zazzara, Università "Ca' Foscari" - Venezia
16:20 - 16:40	› Gendered life stories and shifting memories in former mining landscapes: the Sulcis-Iglesiente area - Liliosa Azara, Department of Education, Rome 3 University - Eloisa Betti, Department of History and Cultures, University of Bologna
16:40 - 17:00	› Critical nostalgia, artistic practice and the negotiation of post-industrial change on Clydeside (Scotland) - Martin Conlon, University of Strathclyde, UK
17:00 - 17:20	› Silent portraits in steel: Duisburg (Thyssen, Germany ), Newcastle(BHP, Australia), Sesto San Giovanni, (Falck, Italy) - Roberta Garruccio, Università degli Studi di Milano - Christian Wicke, Universiteit Utrecht - Erik Eklund, Centre for Gippsland Studies - Faculty of Education and Arts
16:00 - 17:30	Maritime Labour History (F113 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:20	› A new challenge for Mediterranean maritime history: labour and communities in transition from sail to steam. - Apostolos Delis, Principal Investigator, Institute for Mediterranean Studies (IMS-FORTH)
16:20 - 16:40	› "Joys and Sorrows of Seafaring Life". A Biographical Profile of The Captain Carlo Costantini (mid-19th Century) - Erica Mezzoli, Ph.D - Institute for Mediterranean Studies (IMS-FORTH)
16:40 - 17:00	› Sources for the Study of Maritime Labour in Liguria in the Era of Transformation 1850-1920. - Luca lo Basso, Università di Genova Laboratorio di Storia Marittima e Navale (NavLab) - Paolo Calcagno, Università di Genova Laboratorio di Storia Marittima e Navale (NavLab)

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
17:00 - 17:20	› Maritime Labour History in Spain for the Contemporary Period: Sources, Problems and Alternatives - Jordi Ibarz, Universitat de Barcelona - Enric Garcia, Universitat de Barcelona
16:00 - 17:30	Factory History : An Integrated Approach (F111 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Wildcat Homers, Gamifying Work and Workplace-whānau in the Meat Industry: Re-examining the Subversiveness of Informal Workers' Resistance - Toby Boraman, Massey University, Aotearoa New Zealand
16:30 - 17:00	› Time and Factory Work in Bombay, 1875 – 1900 - Hatice Yıldız, PhD Candidate, Faculty of History, Queens' College, University of Cambridge
17:00 - 17:30	› Factory Working-class Formation in 1960s and 1970s Greece: The Cases of the MEL and PITSOS Factories - Stefanos Ioannidis, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
16:00 - 17:30	Workers, Labour and Labour History in Modern Central-East-Europe (F216 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:15	› "Women diggers in Ukrainian archaeological expeditions of 1920-1930s" - Oleksandra Buzko, Institute of Archaeology of Ukrainian National Academy of Sciences, Scientific archive, archivist - Ihor Tseunov, Institute of Archaeology of Ukrainian National Academy of Sciences
16:15 - 16:30	› Between concrete struggle and abstract human rights : Labor protest in Francoist Spain and in state socialist Poland in the 1970s - Anna Delius, Freie Universität Berlin
16:30 - 16:45	› Life story analyses of multigenerational Hungarian workers family in the 20th Century - Tibor Valuch, Hungarian Academy of Sciences (HAS) &amp; Eszterházy Károly University
16:45 - 17:00	› Why did 'Rima-workers' reject Communism? Worker's lifestyle and hierarchy on the colony of the steel factory in Salgótarján - Réka Várkonyi-Nickel, Hungarian Academy of Sciences (HAS) &amp; Eszterházy Károly University
17:00 - 17:15	› The Creation of the Working Class Pillar Through Parallel Rise of Craft Unionism and Marxism in the XIXth Century - András Tóth, Hungarian Academy of Sciences (HAS) &amp; Eszterházy Károly University
16:00 - 17:30	Travail et Empire (F111 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Toiling decolonization: the international and transnational dynamics of social and labour debates in late colonialism (1945-1962) - José Pedro Monteiro, Centre de Estudos Sociais, Universidade de Coimbra
16:30 - 17:00	› Upsurge in the Kericho Valley: Plantation Strikes in Kenya's Tea Sector 1959-60 - David Hyde, University of East London
17:00 - 17:30	› The Role of Labour in Anti-colonial Struggles in Nigeria - Lucky Igohosa Ugbudian, FUNAI, Nigeria
16:00 - 17:30	Histoire des relations internationales des syndicats européens de la métallurgie, depuis la crise des années 1970 (F421 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 17:30	Ecrits d'ouvriers (F303 NANTERRE)
16:00 - 16:30	› Le rôle des rencontres ouvriers/intellectuels dans l'écriture et dans l'édition des textes ouvriers - Eliane Le Port, Université Évry Val d'Essonne
17:30 - 17:45	Pause café (F141 Salle des actes NANTERRE)
17:45 - 18:30	Labour, voice and exit. A longue durée perspective (Amphithéâtre D Bâtiment F NANTERRE) - Alessandro Stanziani

samedi 4 novembre 2017

---

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
09:00 - 11:00	L'évolution des modes de rémunération sur la longue durée (D631)
09:00 - 09:30	› The work strategies of the poor and the diverse ways of their remuneration (Greece, 1900-1950) - Aliki Vaxevanoglou, Research Center for Greek Society, Academy of Athens
09:30 - 10:00	› Forms of remuneration in the Greek Industry. The case of Aspioti-ELKA Graphic Arts Company in Corfu, 1870s-1930s - Dimitrios Kopanas, Phd student in Economic History, Department of History and Archaeology, University of Ioannina
10:00 - 10:30	› About a collective research on the price of labor in France in the 20th and 21st centuries - Michel Margairaz, Université Paris I-Sorbonne Pantheon - Michel Pigenet, Université Paris I-Sorbonne Pantheon
10:30 - 11:00	› The salaried revolution: the causes and consequences of the expansion of capitalism in Ethiopia - Stefano Bellucci, Leiden University and IISH Amsterdam
09:00 - 11:00	Apprentissage, travail et création dans l'Europe moderne (D630)
09:00 - 09:20	› L'existence d'un atelier d'enluminures dirigé par Jean Fouquet : un regard sur la production des disciples - Samuel Gras, Université de Lille
09:20 - 09:40	› The painter's apprentice in 16th century Antwerp. A study of the archival and iconographical sources - Natasja Peeters, War Heritage Institute, Brussels
09:40 - 10:00	› Le premier atelier du Louvre réservé aux femmes : l'atelier de Virginia da Vezzo (1606-1638) - Perrine Vigroux, Université Paul-Valéry de Montpellier
10:00 - 10:20	› L'apprentissage au métier de doreur à Barcelone (1650-1834) - Julien Lugand, Université de Perpignan
09:00 - 11:00	Santé et environnement au travail (XVIIIes-XXe siècles) (D620 Sorbonne)
09:00 - 09:20	› How workers' risks became public risks: The Right-to-Know Movement, 1979-1983 - Pallavi Rao Podapati, Princeton University
09:20 - 09:40	› Contraindre le risque en contexte de crise : Givaudan, Rhône Poulenc (1979-1982) - Vincent Porhel, ESPÉ de Lyon, LARHRA
09:40 - 10:00	› Les risques psychosociaux chez les ouvriers au Maroc : le cas des ouvriers travaillant dans une carrière. - Hajar Jerdioui, Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne
09:00 - 11:00	Histoire féministe du travail (D618 Sorbonne)
09:00 - 11:00	› Rencontre avec les auteurs : "Women's ILO. - Marcel van den Linden, International Institute for Social History
09:00 - 11:00	Factory History : An Integrated Approach (D619 Sorbonne)
09:00 - 09:30	› Farewell to the factory...farewell to the working class? Workplace 'entryism' and the crisis of working class politics in the 1980s - Matt Myers, DPhil candidate in History, Oxford University
09:30 - 10:00	› The Breakdown of Boundaries between Workplace and Community during the Factory Occupations in Le Havre May-June 1936 - Rebecca Shtasel, University of Sussex
10:00 - 10:30	› De-constructing the Industrial Palimpsest in Tophane/Istanbul: From Industrial Cultures to Cultural Industries (15th-21st Century) - Aslı Odman, Mimar Sinan Fine Arts University
10:30 - 11:00	› A Factory Museum Expresses Integrated Research Approach? – The Case of the Ábrahám Ganz Foundry Museum in Budapest, Hungary - Melinda Harlov-Csörtán, Eötvös Loránd University
09:00 - 11:00	Workers, Labour and Labour History in Modern Central-East-Europe (D632)
09:00 - 09:20	› Labour competition in Poland during the Six-Year-Plan. Between fiction and reality. Case of Poland. - Hubert Wilk, Polish Academy of Sciences

HEURES	ÉVÉNEMENT
09:20 - 09:40	› Migration and social transformation – The workforce supply of the Hungarian iron industrial companies in the second half of the 19. century - Péter Nagy, Eszterházy Károly Univerity, Eger
09:40 - 10:00	› Labor in State Socialist Europe after 1945 : Contributions to Global Labor History - Marsha Siefert, Central European University
10:00 - 10:20	› Labour competition in Poland during the Six-Year-Plan. Between fiction and reality. Analytical attempt. - Hubert Wilk, IH PAN
10:20 - 10:40	› What Lies beneath the Appeal of the Radical Right to Elite Workers? The Impact of Deeply Ingrained Nationalism and Perceptions of Exploitation - Eszter Bartha, ELTE University of Budapest
09:00 - 11:00	Histoire du travail militaire (D621 Sorbonne)
10:00 - 11:00	› Working group discussion about military labour history and the future of the working group. - Giulio Ongaro, University Bicocca, Milan - Fia Sundevall, the Swedish Labour Movement Archive and Library, &amp; Stockholm University, Sweden
11:00 - 11:15	Pause café (Appartement décanal PARIS 1)
11:15 - 12:00	What do we need to revisit in labour history by counting women's work (Amphithéâtre Richelieu - Paris 1 Sorbonne) - Cristina Borderias
12:00 - 13:30	Buffet déjeunatoire (Appartement décanal PARIS 1)
14:00 - 18:00	Le Paris des travailleurs - Visite des lieux emblématiques du Paris ouvrier.

ccsd

Sciencesconf.org 