

European Labour History Network

Labour & Empire Working Group

Seminar Series

2022-23

Seminars will be at 4pm UK time/5pm Central European time on Zoom. They will last 1.30 hour, with up to 45 mins of presentation and 45 minutes of Q&A. Presenters will have the option to pre-circulate their papers at their will.

To receive the Zoom link of the events and for any information, please contact the group organisers at labourempire.elhn@gmail.com

2 November 2022

Gareth Curless (University of Exeter), Co-Operative Citizens? Work, Development and Protest in Guyana, c. 1970 to 1985

30 November 2022

Justin Cousin (independent scholar), Joe Redmayne (University of Newcastle), White and Colonial Seamen in British Sailortowns (1914-1935)

8 February 2023

Spencer Mawby (University of Nottingham), The Uhuru Strikes, Ugandan Trade Unions and the Cold War

15 March 2023

Dave Hyde, Pineapple Processing and Conflict in Kenya's Thika District: the Case of Kenya Cannery (1950-1960)