

Military Labour History Working Group

June 2022 Workshop

Our next workshop will be held on Friday 24 June 2022. The workshop meets have changed in frequency, and will now be held every four months (three times a year) on Zoom. The third one for the year will be held around October. In these workshops, we discuss new ideas about and core issues on military labour history, which we began at the 2021 ELHN/WORCK conference in Vienna.

Here are the details:

Time: CDT 9-11am; IST 7.30-9.30pm; EEST 5-7pm; CEST 4pm-6pm; GMT 3-5pm; AEST 12-2am - note, may be subject to change - please check your own time zone!

- Theme: Gender and Sexuality in Military Labour
- Presenter: The format will follow the February meeting, where we won't have a designated presenter, but everyone is welcome to introduce how they work with gender and sexuality in their research, or any issues or ideas they would like to bring to the discussion about the topic. A couple of readings will be provided to open the discussion. The readings will be sent in advance. Please RSVP via the Zoom link below to receive them.
 - Alma Persson & Fia Sundevall, "Conscripting women: gender, soldiering, and military service in Sweden 1965–2018," Women's History Review (2019).
 - Jeong Min Kim, "Base Money: U.S. Military Payment Certificates and the Transpacific Sexual Economies of the Korean War, 1950-1953," American Historical Review (forthcoming).

Meeting format: Each participant who is willing to present will have a few minutes to speak on the designated topic, which will lead us to an open discussion on the topic. Workshop coordinators will serve as facilitators.
